Resolution Was Adopted. A resolution was adopted urging Congress to enact legislation now pending for the extension of the street railway tracks into Brookland, and also to eliminate the deadly grade crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio.

The resolution states that the citizens have taxed themselves for $15,000 for the opening of Monroe street with the understanding that the street railroad company would extend its tracks across the bridge. The bridge was erected at a cost of about $44,000, borne equally by the was expended for macadamizing the street and completing the bridge,

It states further that the people desire to avoid using the man-killing grade crossing, but as the present terminus of the street railway is in a pocket, where passengers are discharged and compelled to cross the railroad tracks in order to reach their destination, that is impossible pect of the passage of the bill, no one now. Capt, Hund Not Arrested. San Francisco, March 29.-There is no truth in the reported arrest of Capt. Daniel W. Hund, U.S. A., quartermaster of the transport St. Thomas. The story was that the captain was arrested last night, presumably on a charge of smuggling. The captain had not been seen in his usual haunts for two days, and out of this grew the report of his secret arrest on some grave charge.

PRESIDENT'S LETTERS OF SYMPATHY AND CONDOLENCE

"I write to convey to you the sincerest sympathy of Mrs. Taft and myself in your great sorrow. Your husband was one of the great jurists and judges of this country, and in your loneliness, I earnestly hope that the thought of the great service which he has rendered to his country may offer some consolation in the sad hours that await you. Sincerely, "WILLIAM H. TAFT."

To Chief Justice Fuller.

"My dear Mr. Chief Justice: "I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter anouncing the death of Mr. Justice Brewer and to condole with the members of the court upon the loss of so able, learned, genial, and respected an associate. May I ask from you the details connected with the funeral, in order that I may pay the tribute to Mr. Justice Brewer's memory which a friendship and profound respect covering many years require? With bowed heads and expressions of profound sorrow, the members of the Wesleyan Alumni Association of Washington drank a silent toast to Justice Brewer, a member of the organization, at their annual banquet at the New Willard last night.

Deep regret over the untimely end of the venerable jurist was heard on all sides. Justice Brewer was to have been one of the speakers at the gathering last night, and his absence cast an evident pall over the gathering.

Paid a Tribute. Judge Martin A. Knapp, the toastnaster, proposed the toast to the late ustice at the beginning of the cereonies. He paid the following tribute to the distinguished alumnus:

"The nation's court of last resort has lost a jurist of great learning, attainments, wisdom, and efforts. He was a philosopher, kindly and gentle, yet courageous.
